

EASTERN ECONOMIC FORUM NEWS DIGEST

The Russian Federal Tourism Agency and Roscongress will sign an agreement on the development of business tourism at the Eastern Economic Forum. Russian Federal Tourism Agency Director Oleg Safronov said most of the large-scale and high-quality events and activities of an international level promote the image of Russia as a modern and influential government that is harmoniously integrated into global business and political processes.

(Russiatourizm.ru)

EMERCOM of Russia will remain on watch during the Forum with beefed-up security, Head of the Main Department of EMERCOM of Russia for Primorye Territory Oleg Fedyura said. In the run-up to the EEF, rescuers will inspect facilities involved in the events, cultural institutions and guest accommodation sites for their compliance with fire safety requirements and standards.

(Oreanda News Information Agency)

NEWS FROM THE FAR EAST

Japan's Mitsui & Co is interested in expanding cooperation with Russia in e-commerce. At present, the company is implementing 17 projects in such areas as energy, engineering, infrastructure and the manufacturing of consumer goods. Representatives of the corporation said two projects have already been funded this year: investment in the Russian Federation has exceeded USD 3 billion.

(TASS)

The International Congress of Fishermen was held in Vladivostok from September 29–30 with the main theme being State Support as a Mechanism for Developing the Fishing Industry. The plans for the event include a roundtable devoted to new legislative initiatives in the fishing industry

(Fishnotice.com)